Jesus Sends out Twelve Disciples

(Matt. 10:5-15; Luke 9:1-6)

Repeat after me

Then Jesus went to the villages round there, teaching the people.

⁷He called the twelve disciples together and sent them out two by two. He gave them authority over the evil spirits

⁸and ordered them, "don't take anything with you on your journey except a stick – no bread, no beggar's bag, no money in your pockets.

⁹wear sandals, but don't carry an extra shirt. "

¹⁰He also said, "Wherever you are welcomed, stay in the same house until you leave that place.

¹¹If you come to a town where people do not welcome you or will not listen to you, leave it and shake the dust off your feet. That will be a warning to them!"

¹²So they went out and preached that people should turn away from their sins.

¹³They drove out many demons, and rubbed olive-oil on many sick people and healed them.

Listen once again

Then Jesus went to the villages round there, teaching the people.

⁷He called the twelve disciples together and sent them out two by two. He gave them authority over the evil spirits

⁸and ordered them, "don't take anything with you on your journey except a stick – no bread, no beggar's bag, no money in your pockets.

⁹wear sandals, but don't carry an extra shirt. "
