相关课文

<sup>1</sup>Not long afterwards another large crowd came together. When the people had nothing left to eat, Jesus called the disciples to him and said.

<sup>2</sup>"I feel sorry for these people, because they have been with me for three days and now have nothing to eat.

<sup>3</sup>If I send them home without feeding them, they will faint as they go, because some of them have come a long way."

<sup>4</sup>His disciples asked him, "Where in this desert can anyone find enough food to feed all these people?"

<sup>5</sup>"How much bread have you got?" Jesus asked. "Seven loaves, " they answered.

<sup>6</sup>He ordered the crowd to sit down on the ground. Then he took the seven loaves, gave thanks to God, broke them, and gave them to his disciples to distribute to the crowd; and the disciples did so.

<sup>7</sup>They also had a few small fish. Jesus gave thanks for these and told the disciples to distribute them too.

<sup>8-9</sup>Everybody ate and had enough-there were about four thousand people. Then the disciples took up seven baskets full of pieces left over. Jesus sent the people away

<sup>10</sup>and at once got into a boat with his disciples and went to the district of Dalmanutha.
